Walking works!

Take the first step to an active, healthy lifestyle. Start with walking. Why? It’s easy—and it can make a big difference in your health.

Take the stairs instead of the elevator. Park a little farther away. Play with the kids or walk the dog. Aim to add more steps and activity to your everyday life.

Even small changes can add up to health benefits over time!